The eternal concepts and existential creativity of God is vast and wide. Obviously, there is no meticulous mind that can exhaust it or see its end. In a grand style, I say God is great. I appreciate Him for the insight He has given me.

Great works done by Emmanuel Ojodun for designing the coverpage. I love you.

My love remains consistent to all pastors, leaders and members of Rebirth Global Church.

NOTE

This book will really help your life. At a particular period in my life that I entreated the favor of God and He opened me up to different things about favor.

This book in your hand was a draft after prayers one afternoon. I finished praying and light from heaven shown in my heart concerning favor. I pray as you read this book, that you begin to work in favor and enjoy favor all round. Amen.

79 INSIGHTS INTO FAVOR

1.Favor works with sight and sound. What people see and hear determines the favor that will come. When you carry favor, it influences the heart of men when they see or hear you.

2.Favor is when men desire your presence. Your prayers should be that God should put on you what will compel men to desire your presence.

3.Anyone that desire to enjoy favor must identify what he has, what he can do and what he knows that will make others to desire his presence. God's favor is what distinguishes your presence from other human presence.

4.Favor is who God compel to like you. Who hates you may not matter but who likes you really matter. God loves all men but has personal likeness for some people. God must like you and those who matter in life must like you. Remember the brothers of Joseph may hate him but as long as God and Pharaoh liked him, he ascended the throne. The wrong people may hate you but the right people that are instrumental to you advance must not hate you.

5.Favor is when men talk about what you do to others. They advertise you and your work without being paid and forced to do so. This is what brings recognition and recommendation.

6.Favor is when you accomplish the results or achievements that your age cannot explain. You attain early a position or status that took others a life time. This is what happens that made people concluded that some people are lucky. Sorry! They are not lucky, they are favored. There were kings in Israel that became kings at age thirty and forty but Josiah became a king at eight. When God favors you, your age doesn't matter any longer.

7.It's favor that triggers the heart of men to conclude that what you offer, say or do is the best when in essence there's somebody elsewhere that is better than you. You can be excellent, if favor is not there, you can't be considered the best. Your excellence needs favor to flourish.

8.Favor opens the eyes of men to see what you do well and blind their eyes to what you did wrong. When God's favor is on you, you may make ninety-nine mistakes, people won't talk about it even though they know it. They will only amplify the one thing you do well more than the ninety-nine mistakes you have made. Favor annuls your errors and announce your goodness.

9.It's favor that will open the brain of people to see your need and settle you even when you don't even tell them. Favor opens the brain of people to give you the position you don't demand. When favor rests on you, everyone will always see you as the qualified.

10.Favor is to be treated well among men. When people always want to satisfy and please you, you have been favored. Never be angry with anyone who mistreated you, it is just a sign you haven't been favored in the sight of that person. Rather than getting angry, simply ask God to favor you in the sight of that person.

11.Favor is when God sees many people and decides to attend to somebody and settle that person first even though He knows the settlement won't go round.

12.Favor is when God endorse you in the heart of men. When the heart of people agree that you deserve to be supported and helped, you have been favored. Your competence and diligence may make men consider you for a position, it is favor that will make them put you in the position.

13.Favor is when people have interest in you and what you do without forcing them. It triggers people to team up with you and be part of what you do. Favor forms a team for your dream. Two people may have a vision. The first begs men to join and support the vision, while favor compels men to join and support the second. Without favor, you will beg for human support. Those who support the favored will always be favored too.

14.Favor makes God and man have interest in you. When God and people think about you regularly, you have been favored. A sign of favor is when people use their mind to think about helping, supporting, lifting and advancing you.

15.Favor brings acceptance and remembrance. When people accept and remember you in their heart, then, you've been favored. The heart of a man is designed to think about that man. So, when your image now comes to the heart of people frequently, you have been favored.

16. When God's favor is on you, you are given attention everywhere you go. People don't just notice people, it takes favor on you to attract their attention to you, your work and success.

17. When favor is on you, you may not look skilled but you will get results easily. Favor will draw men of skill to help you in areas you lack skill.

18. Favor amplifies your voice and little effort. It is favor on you that creates desires in the heart of men to love and hear you regularly.

19. Favor makes people to think of giving you what they labor and worked to get. It is by favor that you get the wealth of the wealthy and gentiles.

20. Favor is known through the relationship around your life. There are some people that your personality, charisma and intelligence cannot connect with, it is only the favor of God that bring you in contact with those people.

21. Favor pushes people to give you what they may not get for themselves and family members at a time, yet they feel compelled to get and give it to you. It is by favor you can get the attention of those at the top.

22.It is favor that makes people to assist you without expecting a reward from you. when people assist you but expect a reward or return from you, that is not favor.

23.Favor is about being preferred above others. When God and man prefer you above others, you are favored. Whoever a person prefers to help, bless, employ, assist, listen to, patronize is the favored. If you are favored, if anyone decides not to help you, you should be sure that God will replace the person with another better person.

24.If you are educated but not favored, you may suffer. Education will make you know but favor will make you known.

25.It is lack of favor that makes people beg for help here and there without getting none. When favor is on you, you will attract help here and there without begging or demanding for it. Joseph didn't tell Pharaoh to make him a prime minister, favor compelled the king to do that.

26.Whatever your work, knowledge, money, skill, and wisdom can get you, favor can get you. favor makes you get freely and cheaply what others got through their work, money and wisdom.

27.It is favor that grants you access to the privacy of great people. when important people grants you access to their private phone contact, home and inner circle, you are favored.

28.Favor is received and can be lost. No matter how gifted you are, when you lack character, you will lose favor.

29.You must be anointed and you must be favored. Anointing makes you do the supernatural naturally for others but favor makes others do things for you. If you are anointed but not favored, you will continue to bless other people but nobody will remember to bless you.

30.Favor will always give you advantage over others. With favor, you get to a position and level others considered difficult.

31.Favor opens – it opens the heart of people, doors to offices, doors to nations. It doesn't matter what's closed against you, with favor, it will open speedily.

32.Favor grants access to secrets, private information and extraordinary wisdom. Anyone with unique wisdom has favor with God.

33.Having favor doesn't mean you won't have challenges. Favor will make your challenges irrelevant and amplify your gifts and talents. Favor blinds men to your challenges and make them desire your talent.

34.Vision, wisdom, action, resources, money makes you to do things. Favor will make what you do to be noticed. It is favor that buys attention.

35.Favor gets your request granted by higher authority. It is favor that causes God and man to grant your request. Answered prayers is a sign of favor. When your leader or boss – authority figure – grants your request like the king granted Esther's request, that is a sign of favor.

36.Favor singles you out of the crowd. Like Joseph, when you have favor, it doesn't matter the number of those ahead of you, favor will cause you to end up becoming the head.

37.Vision and wisdom may make you start out first, it is favor that makes you end up first. Everybody aim for the top; it is favor that get people to the top.

38.You may be in the crowd at the back seat of life. When favor comes on you, in an inexplicable way, you will be ushered to the front seat. Favor is the ladder to the top.

39.We may be equal in school but we may not be equal in life. That is true. This is not a cliché. It is favor that single people out of equality and make their colleagues look up to them.

40.The best student at the university has a first class but the best person in life has favor. If you are a student, you should strive to get a first class, but much more, strive to get God's favor too. First class makes you an academic success, favor makes you a life success. First class makes people celebrate you at convocation, favor makes people celebrate you in life.

41.It is favor that will make those bigger, better, greater and wiser to desire to associate with you. favor determines the quality people that will be in your life.

42.It takes favor for a parent to have some unique children. For a boss to have some wonderful worker, for a leader to have loyal followers and for a worker to have merciful boss.

43.Favor determines who will give their support, approval and loyalty. Who support and approve you really matters. It is with favor that you draw the support, approval and loyalty you need to you.

44.Favor can make you get in thirty minutes the total salary another person gets for thirty years. Others may get to certain position in rank or by promotion, but Joseph never pass any rank to become a prime minister. It just happened. There are people who became vice president and deputy governor today because somebody recommended them. That is favor.

45.Favor opens the head, heart and hand of people toward you. with their head, they share what they know with you. with their heart, they show you love and with their hand, they give you what you need.

46.Favor makes you a sought-after personality. It is favor that makes people bypass a hundred people and a thousand streets to seek one person. When you lack favor, people ignore your phone contact and scroll down to call another person.

47.Striving to get what someone else possesses with stress is a proof that you lack favor. You can be stressed while working but you shouldn't be stressed to get things.

48.Favor is a magnet. Like Joseph from the prison to the presence of the king, it will take you from where you are now to where you need to be. It will bring what you need from wherever it is to where you are now.

49. There is no greatness without favor. Anyone considered to be more important in life is only favored. You can be successful without favor, but you cannot be great without favor.

50. Great dreams come to pass because you are favored. Vision shows the future, wisdom gets you into the future you saw, while favor gives you your position in the future.

51. Wisdom makes a man's face shine; favor makes his face bright. There are many people shining. It is favor that makes you shine brighter.

52. Wisdom may bring you into manifestation, favor brings you into your position. Favor will bring you into position where others will seek your favor. Remember that the brothers of Joseph later sought his help.

53. Whatever vision God has given you, you may not have the skill and resources but with favor, you will get it done. Favor will bring to you everything needed for accomplishment of your vision.

54. The connector between where you are now and your next level is a favor. One favor will take you to a position that twenty years' effort couldn't take you.

55. You don't lack help and helpers, you only lack favor. When favor or more favor is added to your life, it will bring you and the helpers you need in contact with each other. Favor has to come first before help can come.

56. Jacob loved Joseph more than all his children. Favor provokes love. When favor is on you, you will be loved by everyone.

57. Favor separates. You cannot be favored and not separated from shame, smallness and lowness. Anyone with favor will always be singled out among many and equality.

58. Favor makes you the chosen. It controls and regulates the brain of men that you are the qualified for a task, promotion, position. When you are favored, people's gifts and offers will always flow towards your direction.

59. Favor makes you noticeable. It makes people to notice the hand and help of God on you. When you are favored, the wisdom and presence of God will become visible through your life to others. If your work is easily noticed and preferred above others, you have been favored.

60. When favor comes upon you, your mind becomes highly innovative. Those with favor will always get ideas and insights many don't have access to. Favor is the secret to accessing timely and quality information. That is why you must learn to provoke and protect favor.

61. God favors you by bringing men to favor you. When who others really desire picks great interest in you, you have been favored.

62. Favor makes God give you His attention, mercy makes God attends to you. Favor talks to the heart of people to attend to you.

63.Favor is a substance in your spirit that creates an invisible atmosphere around your head. That invisible atmosphere goes everywhere with you to control what people think and see about you. Even if someone hates you, the moment he sees your head and face, that atmosphere influences his heart to think right about you. With that atmosphere, anyone you offend will take the offence lightly when he sees your face.

64.If God doesn't favor you, men can't favor you. Every man's heart is in God's hand and He alone can make them turn in your direction.

65.You can't be favored by God and not be helped by men. The help of men will always go to the direction of people God has invested His favor on.

66.Favor makes you the desire and delight of all people. When you are favored, everyone will delight in who you are and what you offer. God's favor on your business, gift or skill will make all men to delight and patronize it.

67.Favor singles you out of the strivings and competition of men. When God's favor rests on you, all competitors will always be behind you. Favor makes both you and your work the best.

68.Favor makes you to do things that will compel everyone to look towards your direction to get direction for their lives and works. By favor, who you are and what you do will always appear different. Favored people are different people.

69.Favor makes you the first, next and best. You will be the first to breakthrough, get a position or first to be considered. Favor makes you the next in line, next to rise, next to rule and next to be promoted. Favor makes you the best in your sphere. Men of favor are first, next and best.

70. Those who lack favor are those who lack support. When favor increase in you, those who support you will increase. Rather than seeking the support of men, receive what will compel and propel men to support you – and that thing is favor. When favor is on you and men support you, God will always bless those who support you as a sign that to them that they are on the right assignment.

71. Favor makes your results bigger than your effort. When you labor under favor, you will get abundance that will make men to assume that you do too much to get much. Favor makes your little effort to yield great results.

72. The favor of God on you will control the character in people towards you. Favor makes the same person that rejected someone else to arise to help you. Favor makes who is angry at others to be happy towards you.

73. Favor makes people to believe in you, love you, follow you in spite of the bad news they heard about you. When favor is on you, they may lie against you but the lies of haters will never draw away the right people in your life. Favor plants people in your life like a tree is planted on the ground.

NOTE

Your words, gifts and actions can activate favor for you.

74. Don't be deceived, you have to be qualified to have favor. In other words, favor is merited. If you don't merit it, you don't deserve it. When you hear that favor qualifies the unqualified, you have got to know that the unqualified has done something in secret that qualifies him to receive the favor of God. The unqualified that humbles himself before God, serve diligently and eagerly obey divine instruction will receive favor he is naturally not qualified to have. Before you conclude that a person is not qualified for the favor they get, you have got to find out the secret and hidden things that God considers before He granted them favor. You can't entreat the mercy of God and not be qualified for the favor of God. You can't be kind and merciful to others and not be qualified for the favor of God. Many know that the unqualified is not qualified for what he got, but they don't know what the unqualified has done in secret to be chosen and favored by God.

75. If you are not generous, you can't be favored. Joseph shared wisdom not money to get Pharaoh's favor. What you have is what you give. If you have money, give it. If yours is knowledge, information, gadgets, connection with others, you should share it. You will have favor with men when you give to them. Same with God, giving to God causes you to have more favor with Him. Sometimes, you need to give something to get something. The favor of God on you will always cause you to have something to give.

76. Anyone that lack right words to speak will lose favor. What you say and how you talk can earn you favor. If you lack the language of honor on your lips, you will lose favor. You can never get favor from a person you dishonor. Favor and dishonor are enemies. If you want to remain in perpetual favor, you must show honor continuously to those who deserve it and give double honor to whom it is due too. If you dishonor who should be honored, you will be hated where you should be favored. You will never obtain favor from who and where hates you. Therefore, show honor.

77. Angry people are foolish people. Anger rests in the bosom of fools, says Solomon. Angry people lose favor easily. Anger is a killer of favor. Anger will make you to be hated in places you should be loved. And when you are not loved, you can't be favored. A heart that will favor you must first love you. Anytime you are angry, be quiet. Silence is power over anger. You've got to be careful not to permit your silence to develop into malice. If you can subdue anger, you will sustain favor.

78. Never expect favor when you are not willing to help, support and assist others. It is those who help others that are helped by others. When you deny people the help in your power, you have denied yourself the favor God should show you. The fact is that those who serve their leader diligently are those who receive favor consistently.

79. Rebellion and betrayal will always lose favor. Never join others to criticize or gossip about anyone that is ahead of you. Your loyalty to anyone above you will protect and sustain your favor in their sight. When you are told to protect your favor, you are simply told to remain loyal. Judas Iscariot lost his position because of betrayal. Anytime you rebel or betray another, you will lose favor. Let loyalty be your watchword wherever you find yourself. You have to let everyone know you remain loyal. Loyalty attracts favor and protect favor. You will always obtain favor in the sight of whoever you are loyal to.
